

Escapees Are Captured After Kidnaping Pair

PONTIAC (AP)—State Police today captured a convicted murderer and two other Ionia State Reformatory escapees who kidnaped a young Belding couple Sunday, and took them on an eight-hour ride across Michigan.

The captured Ionia trio was among a total of 17 men who escaped from federal and state institutions during the weekend. Ten of the escapees have been captured.

Troopers said they surprised the trio as they slept in the home of a friend at Drayton Plains, near Pontiac. The escapees did not resist capture, troopers said.

Abducted At Belding
Clare McQueen, 20, a Belding construction worker, and his wife, Bonnie, 16, Sunday night told State Police at Pontiac of being abducted near Belding and held captive on a ride to Grand Rapids and Pontiac.

McQueen said the trio was in the home of his brother-in-law when they arrived at the supposedly empty house Sunday morning.

One man brandished a .22 caliber rifle, he said, but later agreed to leave it behind if the couple would take them in their car to Grand Rapids.

Police said they identified their kidnappers from photographs as the three men who waited away from Ionia State Reformatory near Belding last Friday night.

Visibly Shaken
McQueen and his wife were visibly shaken but neither was harmed, officers said.

"They were really quite nice," said Mrs. McQueen. "They bought our gas and they left the rifle at my sister's. When we got to Pontiac he gave me the rest of the shells."

McQueen said one man carried a large, pearl-handled hunting knife in a rear pocket and he believed the others were armed with knives.

The convicts got out of McQueen's car in downtown Pontiac and drove off with another man who apparently was waiting for the trio after the three telephoned him earlier.

The escapees were identified as Al Smith, 30, of Jackson, who has served 14 years of a life sentence of murdering a man and a woman in Luce County; Dennis Hyde, 22, of Pontiac, imprisoned for assault with intent to rape, and Gerald Van Houderbeke, 20, of Grayling serving a term for car theft.

Fourth Walks Away
A fourth convict who had walked away from the institution with them, Welton Clayton, 21, of Mount Clemens, was captured by police Sunday in Hazel Park, 15 miles south of Pontiac.

The trio was captured in Pontiac on a hunch by a State Police detective. He guessed where they might be staying and led troopers there. They broke the door in and captured the trio.

The McQueens, who have been married only one month, said they went to her sister's house to get some belongings. They were moving.

LBJ Seeks GOP Rail Strike Aid

WASHINGTON (AP)—Johnson administration supporters are looking to Republicans on the Senate Labor Committee to supply votes needed for approval of the President's plan to avert a threatened railroad strike.

It will take nine votes to get the President's bill out of the committee. Administration strategists hope GOP members will supply five of these, perhaps six.

Several of the 10 Democrats on the panel have indicated strong reservations about the plan in view of bitter opposition to it from the six shopcraft unions involved and the entire AFL-CIO.

The bill is before the Labor subcommittee, which plans to start work on it in closed session June 5.

The strike deadline in the dispute has been postponed twice through adoption of interim measures by Congress. The strike could begin June 19.

Red Gunners Hit U.S. Army Post Near Viet Coast

SAIGON (AP)—Communist gunners hammered at U.S. forces on the central coast in a pre-dawn surprise attack today while others lobbed mortar shells into the ancient Buddhist city of Hue. Terrorists followed up the mortar attack by bombing a Hue hotel housing members of Polish-Indian-Canadian International Control Commission.

Troops of the 3rd Brigade of the U.S. 25th Infantry Division came under attack at 2:30 a.m. while encamped 7 miles northwest of Duc Pho, a coastal town 225 miles northeast of Saigon. There was sharp fighting in the same area last week.

A U.S. military spokesman said a company of the 3rd Brigade took about 100 rounds of 60mm and 82mm mortar and 37mm recoilless rifle fire from a Communist force of unknown size. The enemy also hit the Americans with heavy fire from automatic weapons and small arms.

The fighting continued until daylight when U.S. units began a sweep of the area. Late reports said the action continued past midday.

Commissioners Unhurt
The U.S. spokesman said the Americans had reported killing 29 Communist troops U.S. casualties were not immediately known.

The mortar and terror attacks in Hue killed four persons and wounded 17, including a driver for the International Control Commission. Although the hotel was about 80 per cent destroyed the 10 commission members staying there escaped unhurt.

No Americans were hurt.

The mortar attacks hit the U.S. advisory compound in the city, the adjoining South Vietnamese sector headquarters, a South Vietnamese officers' club and a residential area. The mortars also cut a line used by the Voice of America transmitter outside the city but broadcasts were not interrupted.

Hue, the old imperial capital of Vietnam, has about 120,000 people and is a traditional center of dissidence in the northern provinces of Vietnam, which have been under extreme Communist pressure. It is also jammed with refugees, many of them Viet Cong sympathizers.

Sneak 1 a.m. Attack

The Communists sneaked their mortars into position only three miles east of the city and opened fire about 1 a.m. Half an hour later they cut loose with a second barrage, firing in all about 65 rounds of 82mm shells.

During the mortar attacks, terrorists got into the Huang Giang Hotel, one of the town's largest, and set off satchel charges on the ground floor. Then they spread gasoline and set fire to the building, which was about 60 per cent destroyed.

The casualties included 16 civilians wounded. The others were South Vietnamese troops or policemen.

Border Gunfire Adds To Gaza War Tension

U.S. Expects Israeli Drive If Ship's Sunk

ATHENS (AP)—Officers of the U.S. 6th Fleet believe Israel will launch a major land assault into the Sinai Peninsula if Egypt sinks a ship bound for Israel in the Gulf of Aqaba.

The Israelis have virtually no naval capability to compete against Egyptian 150mm guns controlling the mouth of the gulf, their link to East Africa, Asia and Iran.

U.S. Navy officers therefore expect Israel would use its highly mobile army to penetrate into and eventually gain control of the entire Egyptian peninsula—breaking Egypt's grip on the gulf. Elath, Israel's only southern port, is at the head of the gulf.

Although the port handles only 10 to 15 per cent of Israel's shipping, Elath receives virtually all of Israel's oil from the Middle East. Because of Israel's great reliance on mechanized movement of troops, oil is a strategic resource.

Israel has only a semblance of a naval force in the gulf to contend with Egyptian President Gamal Abdel Nasser's proclaimed blockade against Israeli shipping.

U.S. Navy officers credit Israel with two PT-boats and two medium landing craft in the gulf.

Egypt, on the other hand, has positioned a relatively strong naval force in the Red Sea—two submarines, about 12 PT-boats, a destroyer and a minesweeper.

Although it was not immediately confirmed, Panamanian or Mauritanian oil freighters are said to be en route to Elath. Navy officers do not believe Egypt will permit a tanker to pass.

With President Johnson backing Israel's right to use the gulf, 6th Fleet ships are maneuvering in the Mediterranean near the trouble spot.

Vice Adm. William I. Martin, 6th Fleet commander, is aboard his flagship, the guided-missile cruiser Little Rock. Joining three American aircraft carriers, a cruiser and four destroyers off Crete.

One of the carriers is the Intrepid, which was going to Vietnam with 70 attack planes. Of the three, only the Intrepid is small enough to pass through the Suez Canal.

Nasser Says He won't End Aqaba Barrier

BEIRUT, Lebanon (AP)—Arab mortar and machine gun fire from the Gaza Strip fired today on Israeli soldiers inside the Israeli and the Israelis answered with machine guns, an Israeli army spokesman said in Tel Aviv. He reported one Israeli was slightly wounded.

While the firing ceased after 10 minutes, the incident served to heighten the feeling of imminent crisis in the Middle East.

The feeling of imminence grew Sunday when President Gamal Abdel Nasser announced he would never retreat from his blockade of Israeli shipping in the Gulf of Aqaba. Israel's premier, Levi Eshkol, declared his army is ready to fight aggression, including a blockade.

The firing of Israeli shells from Gaza apparently was begun by Egyptian irregulars and members of the Palestine Liberation Army. They are believed manning the front lines with Egyptian regular father back.

It was the first such incident reported along the Gaza Strip since the U.N. Emergency Force pulled out of frontier positions last week at Egypt's request.

The army spokesman in Tel Aviv made no mention of Israeli return fire into the strip.

The crisis originally was brought on by a series of border raids on the Syrian front and by Israeli threat to retaliate against Syria. Syria is an ally of Egypt, which promptly sent men and armor to the frontier and asked the U.N. peacekeeping force to withdraw.

Consult Moscow

Syria's chief of state, Nureddine Atassi, flew to Moscow to discuss with Communist party Secretary Leonid I. Brezhnev and Premier Alexi N. Kosygin the Arab-Israeli confrontation.

Nasser warned at a news conference Sunday he will close the Suez Canal to any nation backing Israel in case of war with the Arabs.

The United States and Britain had hoped diplomatic pressure would persuade Nasser to reopen the gulf before an Egyptian attack on some ship resulted in war.

But Nasser told his news conference he would not retreat "even as much as one inch" from his blockade. In case of a challenge to Egyptian sovereignty over the Strait of Tiran, the entrance to the gulf, "we will inflict punishment that will go beyond the imagination of the aggressor, no matter who he is," Nasser declared.

Asks U.S. Be Neutral
He asked the United States to recognize Egypt's cause as just and remain neutral.

"We are not speaking of a settlement and peace with Israel," he said. "Israel was set up by aggression and we must restore the rights of the Palestinian people. We shall be patient for one or ten years but we must reach our goal."

In Tel Aviv, Eshkol said in a broadcast to the nation that Israel would continue to fight for its rights. "Crisis has begun. But he added: "Our armed forces are thoroughly prepared to defend Israel."

Israel announced its forces captured a five-man Egyptian patrol inside Israeli territory in the Negev Desert Sunday. An Egyptian military spokesman in Cairo confirmed the patrol was captured in Israeli territory while scouting.

U.N. Council Meets

He said the Egyptian Foreign Office notified Lt. Gen. Odd Bull of Norway, chief of the U.N. truce supervising organization in Palestine, and requested that the captured men be released by Israel to "avoid consequences."

At U.N. headquarters in New York, the Security Council meets today to take up Secretary-General U. Thant's report expressing fear that a clash over the shipping blockade would "inevitably set off a general conflict in the Near East."

We Memorialize Our New Heroic Dead

The first Memorial Day was proclaimed three years after the Civil War as a time for marking the graves of the Union veterans of the war. But even before that the women of the South had initiated the custom of decorating the graves of all the soldiers who had fallen in the war in Southern graveyards while the war was still being fought.

Tomorrow we observe Memorial Day again and it finds the United States again at war, this time in Vietnam, in a deadly, dreadful and deepening war. Already our involvement in the shooting has made it the fifth most costly war in American history, after World War II, the Civil War, World War I, and Korea. There have been more than 10,000 Americans killed in the war in Vietnam already and the toll mounts weekly.

Memorial Day brings honors to five fresh graves in this area. They are those of servicemen who have been killed or who have died in service in the past year:

Seaman Thomas Lee Tiglas, 19, U.S. Navy, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Tiglas, Jr., 128 S. Houghton Ave., Manistique, was killed in action in Vietnam when the USS Destroyer O'Brien was struck by a communist shell while patrolling off North Vietnam, first direct hit on an American warship in those waters. He graduated from Manistique High School in 1966.

Marine Pfc. Joseph Jenks, 22, only son of Mr. and Mrs. Glen Jenks of Intake Park Road, Manistique, was killed in combat in Vietnam March 15, while fighting with the U.S. Marines. He had been overseas since Jan. 1, 1967. He graduated from Manistique High School and was an alumnus of Michigan Tech.

Sp-4 Richard A. Johnson, 20, son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Johnson, 321 S. 18th St., was Escanaba's first fatality in the Vietnam war. He was killed by a Viet Cong booby trap May 7 while serving with the 17th Infantry of the Army's 9th Division. A 1965 graduate of Escanaba Area High School, he entered the army in 1966.

Pfc. Dwight R. Stockholm, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Stockholm of 1327 Minnesota Ave., Gladstone, was killed in action May 16 by fragments of a grenade while fighting near Quang Tri, Vietnam. He was serving with Echo Co., 2nd Battalion, 26th Marines, 3rd Marine Corps and had been in Vietnam since March after entering the service in 1966. He was a 1961 graduate of Gladstone High School and had attended Michigan Tech.

Cpl. Rodger P. Charon, 20, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Charon of Flat Rock, died in a U.S. Army hospital in Frankfurt, Germany on May 9, of post-surgical complications. He had been serving with the 85th Maintenance Battalion in Hanau, Germany for six months. He was a 1965 graduate of Escanaba Area High School.

The war is uniquely controversial and unsettling for America. It is significant of our divisions of opinion about it that the strongest criticism of our conduct of it has come from the Johnson Administration's own members. The war is in keeping with the complexity and troubled nature of our times, with an unceasing power struggle going on between the communist nations and the free nations of the world, and erupting at times

10 Hiawatha Campgrounds Charge 2 Fees This Year

The vanishing eagle has taken on a new meaning to thousands of American families. For the second year, it has become a symbol of conservation and outdoor recreation. The Golden Eagle Passport is the $7 card which admits its bearer and all occupants of his car to any federally owned recreation area an unlimited number of times during the year from April 1 to March 31.

Sherwood Trotter, Supervisor of the Hiawatha National Forest, said the Golden Eagle passport will admit campers to 15 campgrounds on the Hiawatha. Campers who do not purchase the $7 passport can pay $1 daily entrance fee.

When a camper buys the annual permit, he makes a contribution to the future of outdoor recreation, Trotter said. Sixty per cent of the money collected goes to the states to plan, develop, and acquire recreation areas. Forty per cent of the fund is authorized by Congress for the acquisition of recreation lands and waters by federal agencies. Most of the funds are spent in the eastern United States, where the population and need for outdoor recreation are greatest.

On 10 of the more highly developed campgrounds on the Hiawatha, an additional $1 user fee will be charged. This $1 will be a daily fee for camping. The following Hiawatha National Forest campgrounds will require both the entrance and user fee: Bay View, Brevoort, Camp 7, Colwell, Island Lake, Lake Michigan, Monocle Lake, Pete's Lake, Soldiers' Lake, and Widewater.

The campgrounds requiring only the entrance permit or fee are: Carp River, Corner Lake, Foley Creek, Indian River, and Little Bass Lake.

The Golden Eagle Passport is available at the forest supervisor's office.

visor's office on the third floor of the Escanaba Post Office Building or at the five forest ranger headquarters at Rapid River, Manistique, Munising, Sault Ste. Marie, and St. Ignace. They may also be purchased from the collection officer on any of the campgrounds.

No charge will be made on any of the Hiawatha National Forest Campgrounds until June 15. There will be seven campgrounds on which fees will not be charged this year. No charge will be made at any of the picnic, boating, or swimming sites. Further information on national forest recreation areas can be had at any of the ranger stations or from the supervisor's office.

'Sound Of Music' Record Available At High School

The long-playing record of the "Sound of Music," made by Escanaba Area high school from the performance of the play earlier this year is available at the high school.

Conrad Beck, vocal music director, said the recording was made from the Thursday and Friday night performances of the play.

Persons who have ordered records can pick them up at the high school music office in the F-Section of the school through Friday of this week. Albums also will be on sale to the public at the office throughout the week. Anyone wishing to purchase an album after Friday may do so by calling Beck at ST 6-1054.

Profits from sale of the album will be used to defray expenses of the Escanaba Area Concert Choir incurred in its recent trip to Detroit to appear at the Music Educators National Conference.

The album cover, Beck said, features pictures of the cast.

Holiday Death Record Feared

CHICAGO (AP) — Traffic accidents over the Memorial Day weekend snuffed out the lives of hundreds of Americans and safety experts feared today the long holiday period might produce a record toll.

The total number of deaths on highways stood at 352 early today.

Howard Pyle, president of the National Safety Council, said traffic fatalities are running about 5 per cent less than last year's three-day Memorial Day weekend. However, he added, since this year the respite spans four days, total traffic deaths-barring a trend reversal-will hit a new Memorial Day weekend high.

"Reports to this time indicate the final total will fall within the 650-750 range estimated by the council at the start of the holiday," Pyle said. The final count will include traffic deaths from 6 p.m. Friday to midnight Tuesday.

Pyle said the increasing fatality rate over the past two years reflects the growing number of drivers on the nation's highways and underlines "the urgency with which states must adopt new safety programs that meet federal standards."

Last year 542 persons died in traffic accidents over the three-day holiday, a record for a Memorial Day observance of any length. The most recent four-day Memorial Day weekend was in 1961, when there were 462 highway deaths.

There were 53 drownings this at noon today the death count was 386. Traffic; 24, boating, 61, drowning.

Traffic accidents in Michigan have claimed 29 lives as the four-day Memorial Day holiday continues.

The Michigan deaths include, Thomas Gannon, 40 of Marquette, killed when his car ran off a rural road south of Big Bay early Sunday.

Teachers Call Bad Axe Unfair

BAD AXE (AP) — The Bad Axe Education Association has filed an unfair labor practices charge against the Bad Axe Board of Education.

The complaint charges that teachers have been coerced into signing contracts and have been threatened with dismissal in the absence of a collective bargaining agreement.

Norbert Bufka, president of the education association, said Superintendent of Schools K.W. Pietscher notified teachers on May 1 that their positions would be considered open on May 22 if individual contracts were not returned by that date.

Bufka claims that the superintendent's action violates both the Michigan Teacher Tenure Act and the Public Employment Relations Act.

The charges were filed with the State Labor Mediation Board Friday. No date for a hearing has been set.

Arson Charge Filed Against Prison Trusty

MARQUETTE, A trusty at the state prison in Marquette, Clayton C. Waterman, 35, has been charged with arson in connection with three fires at the institution.

Municipal Judge Edward H. Dembowski bound the trusty over to circuit court for trial after he waived a preliminary hearing. No date was set and he was returned to the prison.

The most recent of the three fires he is accused of setting was resulted in about $4,000 damage to the prison hog farm and the loss of 30 adult hogs valued at $1,500. Two earlier fires, one of which caused extensive damage, was in the horse barn.

Waterman, a native of Wakefield, was sentenced in Gogebic county circuit court Feb. 15, 1966, on charges of larceny from a building and breaking and entering. He would have been eligible for parole next September.

Ten Soldiers Die In Copter Crash

FT. KNOX, Ky. (AP) — The Army announced today the death toll reached 10 in the crash of two UH1B "Huey" helicopters during a training mission at this military base near Louisville.

Ten soldiers were in Ireland Army Hospital, two listed in serious condition.

The 10 killed in the Sunday afternoon crash were members of the 3rd Squadron, 17th Air Cavalry Regiment stationed at the base, said Lt. Col. John Caithness, the post information officer.

Identities were withheld pending notification of relatives.

Caithness said the helicopters were transporting troops on a training exercise in preparation for a demonstration of firepower and armor mobility, scheduled June 1.

Each helicopter normally transports 10 men, plus a crew of three.

Caithness said it was not clear whether the copters collided or individually lost power and dropped to the ground.

Bay College Holds 3rd Commencement

Associate degrees were conferred upon 60 graduates of Bay de Noc Community College at the third annual Commencement program held Sunday afternoon in Wm. Oliver Auditorium.

Dr. Richard L. Rinehart, president of Bay de Noc Community College, conferred the degrees upon the graduates who were presented by William R. Williams of the College faculty.

The diplomas were presented by Joseph L. Heiman, chairman, Bay de Noc College Board of Trustees.

The Commencement address was given by Miss Catherine Erickson, Escanaba, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Erickson, who graduated from Bay de Noc College and will graduate with honors from Northern Michigan University this spring.

Miss Erickson praised the role of the Community College in firmly establishing the student on a proper course of study. She explored the difference between higher "learning" and higher "education" and said:

"Learning is a product of interest and intelligence. The highest intelligence without interest earns nothing."

Retain Credits
"Some of the drop-outs do so voluntarily—the rest are washed out by the faculty. The old face-saving excuse of 'no money' is now a thing of the past. There are enough scholarships, grants, and loans available so that no qualified student need quit or be washed out for that reason."

Studies have shown that community college student transfers do as well as or better than their classmates who are enrolled in the four-year institution in the first place, she reported.

"Probably the main concern of transfer students in whether or not their hours will be transferable for full credit," she continued. "To my knowledge, no one has lost credits when transferring from Bay de Noc to another school. In some cases Bay's requirements have not been the same as those of other schools, but there is no other loss of any of your hours."

Standard Procedure
"The transfer procedure is merely to accept these hours as credits toward graduation and then to follow the courses outlined by the college or university," she said.

She pointed out, however, that it is the "standard procedure" for the four-year college or university to have the student establish a new grade record. Thus credits from the community college (or from the University of Michigan or any other school) are therefore transferred as "C" regardless of how high they may have been.

Miss Catherine Erickson

The alumnus of Bay de Noc Community College noted that the "liberal sprinkling of more mature men and women" students "lend a serious and purposeful tone to the classroom setting." These are people who for one reason or another were unable to continue their education and are now grateful for the opportunity to pick it up again.

Vocations Important
The decision on vocations is important, she told the graduates.

"I would advise students, who by all standards are believed capable of mastering higher education courses, but who are not interested in learning in order to qualify for white-collar jobs, to follow their natural inclinations—to repair machinery and equipment, to get a job in retail merchandising or any vocation that gives you the satisfaction of achievement."

She concluded with praise for the Community College and its staff and said that she was proud to be an alumnus.

Participating in the program were Miss Leona Dougherty, Charles A. Sigmund of the faculty, and the Bay de Noc Chorus directed by Mrs. George A. Peterson.

Dr. Rinehart read a congratulatory letter to the graduating class and the College from President Lyndon B. Johnson.

The graduates

Associate of Arts — Jane Beckstrom, Michael Buchanan, Stephen Davis, Marsha Fraddo, Kathleen Frederick, Bonnie Hay, Paul Kangas, Helen Knaus, June LaChapelle, Marcella Lancour, Mary Larson.

Ruppe Inspects Viet Shipping

WASHINGTON (AP) — Rep. Phil Ruppe, R-Mich., and Rep. Frank Clark, D-Pa., flew to Vietnam Sunday to investigate the U.S. Coast Guard and shipping problems.

Ruppe said the trip will include stops in Bangkok, Saigon and Manila.

He said the Coast Guard has prevented 250 tons of ammunition, arms, food and other war material from reaching the Viet Cong.

"However, we must constantly evaluate and search for better ways to bar seaborne aid to the Viet Cong."

"The coast guard subcommittee of the House Merchant Marine and Fisheries Committee is going to be faced with some critical decisions in the near future. The Coast Guard is a small service, and every man and boat we send abroad leaves a hole in their mission at home."

"This year Coast Guard manpower in Vietnam has doubled to 1,100 enlisted men and 136 officers. If American military pressure increases, we can expect a substantial increase in Coast Guard activity in Asia."

Chairman Clark of the Coast Guard subcommittee and I intend to gather information to guide us in the decisions our committee will soon be making."

He said at Bangkok and Manila they will investigate shipping problems, construction of port facilities, and possible port congestion.

They expect to return to Washington about June 14, Ruppe said.

Originally diplomats carried diplomas attesting to their ability, and that is how the word diplomat began.

Duwayne M. Hansen

Illness Claims Fire Captain

Duwayne M. Hansen, 49, of 514 S. 12th St., a captain with the Escanaba Fire Dept., died at his home at 4:15 p.m. Saturday. He had been ill several months.

Mr. Hansen was born Jan. 11, 1918, on Washington Island, and had been employed with the Fire Dept. for the past 20 years, starting as a fireman May 22, 1947. In May, 1952, he was promoted to fire lieutenant and earlier this year was promoted to Captain.

He was a member of the First Methodist Church.

Survivors include his widow, the former Dorothy Brown; three daughters, Mrs. Wayne (Sandra) LaCasse of Escanaba; Mrs. James (Sally) Bruce of Marquette and Susan, at home; two grandchildren; three sisters, Mrs. Lester Breitzman, Evanston, Ill., Mrs. Fred McGregor, Gulliver, and Mrs. Charles Lyall, Pala, Calif., and two brothers, Paul of Manitowish, and Norman of Northbrook, Ill. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Hansen of Steuben, Mich., also survive.

The body was taken to the Anderson Funeral Home where friends may call at 4 p.m. today. Complete funeral services will be held at 11 a.m. Monday at the funeral home with Rev. Konstantin Wipp officiating. Burial will be in Lakeview Cemetery.

Topless Dancer Gets $100 Fine

FLORENCE, Wis., — A Chicago a-go-go dancer pleaded guilty to a charge of indecent exposure and was fined $100.

Candice Rodriguez, 24, was fined by Marinette County Judge Harry E. White, sitting here.

Mrs. Evelyn Pacquin, operator of Evelyn's Curve Inn, Spread Eagle, pleaded no contest to a charge of aiding and abetting a lewd and obscene performance. She was found guilty and fined $150.

A similar charge against Mrs. Marcie Lahmons, 29, Iron Mountain, Mich., a waitress, was dismissed on the motion of Dist. Atty. Walter Dalla Grana.

The women were charged May 9 after the topless performance was witnessed by Mrs. Lois Novak, a deputy sheriff.

Tornado Relief

WASHINGTON (AP) — Barry Clinton and Ionia Counties will share a $115,000 allocation from the Department of Agriculture to remove debris and make repairs to farm property caused by tornadoes, according to Sen. Philip A. Hart, D-Mich.

Auto Inspection Starts In U. P.

State police have begun participation in a state-wide vehicle inspection program authorized by the Michigan Legislature in July of 1966.

The new program authorizes on-the-spot, no-warning automobile inspections throughout the state.

Under the direction of Capt. Ribert Bilgen, district commander of the Michigan State Police, the Upper Peninsula will take part in the safety inspection until the inclement months of fall.

Cpl. Jack Dean and Sgt. James Somers of the district traffic and safety division will supervise operation of the program at various posts throughout the Peninsula. They experienced with an inspection at K. I. Sawyer Air Force Base last Thursday.

During the inspection more than 100 cars were stopped. "Several defects were found," Somers said, "most of which were minor. Any flagrant defects warranted a summons, while warnings were issued for the rest."

"If the cars pass our inspection, we will issue the driver a safety sticker. Otherwise, defects must be repaired as soon as possible by an authorized repairman."

Vessel Pulled From Pilings

A Columbia Transportation Co. ore and coal carrier was towed from Little Bay de Noc Sunday to Surgeon Bay, Wis., for repairs after steering failure caused her to be blown on to pilings from an old ore dock Saturday.

The carrier J. Claire Miller was pulled off the pilings by the tug John Purves of the Roen Steamship Co., Sturgeon Bay, and cleared Little Bay de Noc Sunday afternoon.

Officials of the C. Reiss Coal Co. and the Chicago & North Western said the vessel had unloaded coal at the Reiss Co. dock in Wells and had just left the dock when something broke in the steering mechanism.

High winds Saturday afternoon blew the vessel onto the pilings just off the City of Escanaba power plant.

Capt. of the ship is Crist Hanson.

The 525-foot boat had been scheduled to take on a cargo of natural ore from the C&NW dock for Inland Steel Co., Indiana Harbor, Ind.

Michigan Men's Glee Club Wows Osaka Audience

OSAKA (AP)—The University of Michigan Glee Club brought down the house over the weekend at Osaka.

The concert was staged at Osaka International Festival Hall, featuring the U-M Glee Club and Osaka's Kwansai Gakuin Glee Club.

The Michigan songsters brought repeated applause from the 3,000 people in the audience with their renditions of American folk songs and spirituals.

After the concert, members of the two glee clubs marched arm-in-arm, singing, through the streets of Osaka, Japan's second largest city.

The 56-member club, under the direction of Prof. Philip A. Duey, is on a 45-day tour of 16 countries.

Rev. David Brostrom

Rotary Hosts Honor Grads

Honor graduates and their parents will be guests of the Escanaba Rotary Club at its traditional honors luncheon to be held Wednesday noon at the House of Ludington.

The Rev. David Brostrom, pastor of the Calvary Baptist Church of Escanaba, will be the speaker.

Fr. Lawrence Gauthier, superintendent of Holy Name High School, will present the honor students, who in turn will introduce their parents.

Escanaba Area Public High School honor students will be introduced by Robert Micensky, principal, and the students will present their parents.

There will be responses from the Rotary Boy and Rotary Girl from each high school who are recipients of the Rotary Club's watch awards in recognition of outstanding citizenship.

Ralph Kaziatek, Rotary Club president-elect, will preside. He emphasized that the luncheon is on Wednesday, not on Thursday.

Mullet Lake Mishap Fatal

CHEBOYGAN (AP) — A 45-year-old Lansing man drowned on Mullet Lake near Cheboygan when his 14-foot outboard motorboat capsized Saturday. The man, John G. Daman, was the father of seven. A 17-year-old fishing companion, Terry L. Wolfe, also of Lansing, clung to the boat for two hours and was

City Appoints In New Policy

The Escanaba City Council will at its meeting Thursday night at 8 in the City Hall name citizens to various municipal boards and commissions under a new policy which prohibits tenure for more than six consecutive years.

This will mean that several persons who have served on boards and commissions for a number of years will not be eligible for reappointment at this time.

There will be vacancies to fill on the Safety Advisory Committee, two; Recreation Board, two; Planning Commission, three; Civil Service Commission, one; and the Library Board, two.

Howard Smale, Escanaba administrative assistant, said the Council will welcome receiving the names of persons who are desirous of serving on one of the boards or commissions. They are asked to call the City Hall, ST 6-0240 before Thursday evening.

The Council in other business will award a watch to retired Fire Captain John Kirkpatrick; open bids for a number of items; hear objections to assessments for street paving and water and sewer extensions; and hire auditors for the fiscal audit.

A resolution authorizing the city to enter into sanitary land fill agreements with townships will be adopted; and there will be first reading of an ordinance to regulate public nuisances, preserve property values, and eliminate safety hazards within the city.

Personals

Mr. and Mrs. Arol Beck, 908 S. 7th Ave., have returned from Las Vegas, Nev., after a buying and vacationing trip.

Praise Rights Act

DETROIT (AP) — The Michigan Civil Rights Commission has endorsed the proposed federal Civil Rights Act of 1967. Commission Chairman Damon J. Keith noted in a letter to Sen. Philip A. Hart, D-Mich., that several provisions are covered by the Michigan constitution, but he said "the commission is heartened by the efforts of the senators to enact comprehensive legislation prohibiting discrimination in the sale and rental of housing."

WIN SCHULER of Marshall, widely recognized restaurant operator and one of Michigan's most vigorous boosters, will be general chairman of the 15th annual Michigan Week, May 19-25, 1968. His election by the board of governors of the Greater Michigan Foundation was announced at the close of the 1967 celebration. (AP Wirephoto)

Memorial Day Ski Conditions Best In Years

PINKHAM NOTCH, N.H. (AP) — Thousands of skiers from the Northeast are schussing a late-season snow bonanza on Mt. Washington.

But the cold weather has been hard on the sun tanners and Tuckerman Ravine girl watchers.

Unless it rains hot water, Tuesday should offer the best Memorial Day skiing in the 40 years in which records have been kept in Tuckerman Ravine.

Two feet of snow fell Friday atop a snow cover that has hardly melted on the high slopes since winter.

State Police Induct Women

EAST LANSING, Mich. (AP) — Kay E. Whitfield and Noreen E. Hillary became the first women troopers in the 50-year-old history of the Michigan State Police at swearing-in ceremonies last week.

The misses, each 25, took their oaths with 40 men. "These young ladies are tough," said Trooper R. E. Dragomer, who conducted the physical education program, including judo, for the class of recruits.

Miss Whitfield, a petite blonde from Pontiac, said she joined the force because "I've always had a great deal of respect for the state police."

Miss Whitfield formerly was a policewoman at Kalamazoo. Trooper Hillard, a sociology major while attending Marymount College in Saline, Kans., has served as a social worker in Grand Rapids, her hometown.

Michigan Men's Glee Club Opens Tour In Japan

TOKYO (AP) — The University of Michigan men's glee club opened a 45-day world concert tour of 16 countries here before a Japanese crowd of 15,000.

The 56-member club, under the direction of Prof. Philip A. Duey, sang a variety of American music ranging from light classics to spirituals, from modern to classic songs.

The audience expressed special interest in modern American music and the spirituals, which it enthusiastically applauded.

An eight-member chorus known as "The Friars" was a big hit with its songs, including rock 'n' roll numbers, as was pianist Franchot Young.

The group, second oldest organization of its kind in the United States, will give one more performance in Japan, appearing in Osaka Sunday, before continuing on its world tour.

Medical Corpsman Furloughed While Uniform Is Made

DETROIT (AP) — Medical Corpsman Larry Jensen is fit for duty, all right. But the Marines are having difficulty finding a uniform fit for Jensen.

So Jensen, known to his buddies as "the gentle giant," is back home with his pregnant wife Claudette until the leather-neck tailors can whip up a suit of clothes for him.

Jensen isn't really much of a giant—he's only 6 feet 5½ and he tips the scales at a mere 245 pounds. But his arms are a bit of a problem. They're 38 inches long and hang almost to his knees.

Jensen actually is in the Navy, but Navy medical corpsmen provide combat support for Marines in Vietnam and are outfitted with Marine uniforms.

The gentle giant went through a five-week training course at Camp Pendleton, California, wearing Navy dungarees. At the end of the five weeks, still without a uniform, he watched his buddies ship out for Vietnam.

Jensen convinced commanding officers the 45 to 60 days until a special uniform is made could be better spent with Claudette than picking up cigarette butts.

The 26-year-old medical corpsman volunteered for medical duty in Vietnam. Although he admits he's concerned about going into combat, he considers it a duty.

British Entry

ROME (AP) — Rome welcomed the first Common Market summit meeting in six years today with inauguration of a new executive combine expected to be the only achievement.

French President Charles de Gaulle's opposition to Britain's application for membership and to proposals for political unity of the six Common Market members ruled out progress on those two major issues.

That left little but formalities and ceremonies for the two-day meeting on the 10th anniversary of the formation of the European Economic Community.

However, De Gaulle was expected to go along with the inauguration of a 14-member executive combine to replace the three separate executive commissions that now exist for the Economic Community; the European Atomic Energy Commission, and the European Coal and Steel pool.

De Gaulle also exerted his will here by opposing the appointment of West German Walter Hallstein to head the new combine. Hallstein is the long-time chairman of the EEC commission and a champion of the kind of political unity De Gaulle opposes.

DuPont Admits Killing 5,000 Fish

MARQUETTE (AP) — The State Water Resources Commission has recommended that legal steps be taken to collect $500 from the DuPont Chemical Co. for accidentally killing 5,000 fish last month. The company admitted accidentally dumping chemical wastes into a northern pike spawning ground in White Lake, the commission said.

Romney Honored By Boy's Clubs

DETROIT (AP) — Gov. George Romney and Harry Weinbaum, a Detroit weekly newspaper publisher, will be awarded Bronze Keystones at the annual meeting of the Boy's Clubs of Metropolitan Detroit Thursday. Russell S. Strickland, vice president of Rockwell Standard Corp., will receive the highest award, a Silver Keystone.

State Waters Claim 7 Lives

By The Associated Press

Seven persons drowned in Michigan waterways during the weekend, four of them in boating accidents.

Among the latest water deaths were two Detroit boys, Daniel Greenwood, 6, and his brother, Garrett, 8, whose bodies were recovered today from a canal where they were swimming Sunday night.

Dragging operations were under way in Sanford Lake for the body of Michael Krone, 17, a Saginaw high school student. He disappeared while swimming early today, Midland County sheriff's deputies said.

Martin Hansen, 39, of Marquette and his mother-in-law, Mrs. Lamine Lanon of Ironwood drowned Sunday when their 12-foot boat capsized while they were fishing in Lake Superior.

Michael Gay, 3, drowned when the boat in which he was riding sank in the Tobacco River just west of Gladwin on Saturday.

John G. Daman, 45, of Lansing, drowned in Mullet Lake near Cheboygan Saturday when his boat capsized. A 17-year-old fishing companion, Terry Wolfe of Lansing, clung to the boat for two hours before being rescued.

Escapes Are Captured After Kidnaping Pair

brother-in-law and her sister, were at church with their children, Mrs. McQueen said.

"I'm sort of glad we were the one's that got it," said McQueen. "We got out of it with nothing, but the kids might have gotten stirred up."

He said one of the convicts at first looked something like a friend of his brother-in-law.

"But after I saw it wasn't him, I wasn't going to take any chances and I didn't give him any lip," he said.

McQueen said the trio tried to find a friend in Grand Rapids, but the man had moved and they decided to go to Pontiac, they said they wanted the friend to take them out of the state.

The escapees slumped in the car several times when police cars passed and one man put on sunglasses, the McQueens said.

The four escapees, all of whom were trustees at Ionia, had split up after escaping, police quoted Slayton as saying.

The escapees were part of a wave that hit Michigan penal institutions over the weekend.

Five more Ionia trustees walked away from their minimum security quarters Sunday night, but four were captured Monday one mile north of Saranac, about seven miles west of the reformatory.

Police, meanwhile, searched also for four men who walked off from a prison farm at the Federal Correctional Institution at Milan. And escape bulletins were posted for inmates who walked away from Coldwater State Hospital and the state Boys Training School.

Mrs. Ward, 72, Taken By Death

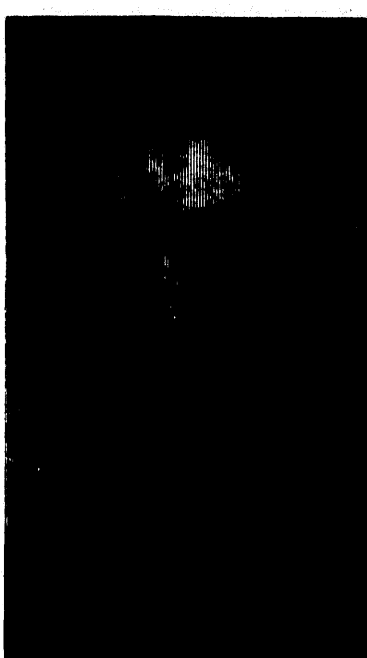

Mrs. Anna (Alicia) Ward, 72, of 1021 Wisconsin Ave., who has been a resident of Gladstone for more than 50 years, died at 6 a.m. Sunday at St. Francis Hospital, where she had been a patient for four days.

Mrs. Ward had been in failing health since July. She was born Oct. 14, 1894, in Ishpeming, and married Wesley G. Ward on April 1, 1913. Mr. Ward died April 6, 1966.

Holy Name To Graduate 139 On Tuesday

Bishop Thomas L. Noa

Rev. Lawrence Gauthier

Diplomas Will Be Conferred By Bishop Noa

The 13th annual commencement exercises of Holy Name High School will be held in the school gymnasium at 8 p. m. Tuesday, May 30.

The Most Rev. Thomas L. Noa, Bishop of the Diocese of Marquette, will confer the diplomas upon the 139 graduates, 76 girls and 63 boys.

The Rev. Lawrence Gauthier, Holy Name High School superintendent, will welcome the parents and friends of the class of 1967, and the graduates will be presented by Brother H. Mark, F. S. C., principal of the boys' department, and Sister Mary Christine S. S. N. D., principal of the girls' department of the school.

The address of the commencement exercises will be given by the Rev. William McGee, Newman Chaplain at Michigan Tech in Houghton.

Francis D'Amour, president of the Holy Name School Board will present honorary awards in the form of special certificates to the top ranking seniors of the class of 1967. These are the Holy Name Scholarship Foundation Awards.

The Holy Name High School Band under the direction of Patrick Henderson will provide processional, recessional, and interlude numbers. The Holy Name Girls' Chorus under the direction of Mrs. Rosemary LeMire will sing several numbers. Patricia Ann Peck will accompany the chorus. The program will conclude with Benediction of the Most Blessed Sacrament.

Unit Classroom Product-Of-Year

DETROIT (AP) — Michigan's product-of-the-year is a portable classroom unit which is used by schools to meet space shortages.

Diveco-Wayne Industries Inc., of Marlette, in the Thumb area, is the manufacturer of the unit, known as "Add-A-Class," which was announced as the product winner.

Lt. Gov. William G. Milliken lauded the Marlette company in Michigan Week ceremonies at shopping center in suburban Southfield.

James M. Meadows, general manager of the Marlette plant of Diveco-Wayne, accepted the award. The unit was developed by William Jaquays, Diveco-Wayne product coordinator.

The units are available with restrooms, coat closets, supply cabinets, chalk boards, drinking fountains, air conditioning and other features. Utilities are connected. Approximately 1,000 of the unit have been sold.

Diveco-Wayne is in its fourth year of operation. It employs 150 persons.

Labor Letter Slaps Romney

DETROIT (AP) — The Michigan AFL-CIO has criticized Gov. George Romney for inconsistency in statements about labor.

In a newsletter, the labor group said that Romney has forgotten his Labor Day messages and is "clobbering workers' goals."

"The man who claims to love workers on Labor Day and wants their votes on election day is spending a considerable amount of time in between criticizing their efforts to win a measure of equity," the AFL-CIO news service said.

Romney has been seeking funds for his presidential campaign in meetings with business executives in Cleveland, New York and Chicago, the newsletter said.

"He told each of these groups that he favored breaking up unions which represented workers in the same industry. In recent weeks Romney has been wooing conservatives with another pitch—opposition to repeal of section 14b of Taft-Hartley which now permits various states to adopt 'right-to-work' laws," it said.

President Honors 2 State Students

WASHINGTON (AP) — Two Michigan students are among the 121 outstanding high school students named as 1967 Presidential Scholars by President Johnson.

They are William James Davey of Albion and Karen Rhea Fonde of Ann Arbor. They will visit Washington June 13 as the guests of President and Mrs. Johnson and will be honored at a White House reception.

Jimson weed got its name from a popular shortening of the name of the early Virginia settlement of Jamestown.

Reggie Smith Looks Best Circling Bases To Red Sox Manager

By The Associated Press
Reggie Smith has made a quick round trip from outfield to infield and back—with a stopover on the Boston Red Sox bench.
But the versatile rookie still looks best to Manager Dick Williams when he's circling the bases.
Smith, an early-season disappointment at bat for the hard-hitting Red Sox, broke loose Sunday by stroking three hits and flashing his speed to score three runs in a 4-3 Boston victory over the Baltimore Orioles.
Elsewhere, the Detroit Tigers trimmed Washington 3-1 and climbed within one-half game of the American League-leading Chicago White Sox, who were blanked by California 5-0. The New York Yankees shut out Cleveland 5-0 and Minnesota divided a doubleheader with Kansas City, winning the first game 4-3 and dropping the nightcap 7-2.
Pittsburgh edged Cincinnati 3-

Pontiac Hurdler Tops Own Record In State Finals

By The Associated Press
Bullet-like Bill Tipton cracked his own high hurdles record and nearly broke another. But his standout performance for Pontiac Central failed to equal the team effort of Battle Creek Central which won the Michigan Class A high school track championship.
The Class A contest at East Lansing was one of four state championship meets Saturday. Ecorse grabbed four first places and won the Class B championship at Ann Arbor. Dave Carroll of Laingsburg led his team to victory in the Class C meet at Mount Pleasant. And Detroit St. Charles won the Class D championship at Mount Pleasant.
Tipton, a 17-year-old senior, successfully defended his 120-yard high and 180-yard low hurdles titles Saturday but Pontiac Central managed only 22 points to finish fourth. Battle Creek racked up 48 points for the title.
Tipton won the high hurdles in 13.9, bettering the 14-second flat clocking he set last year. He won the lows in 19.3, three-tenths of a second off the Class A mark of 19 flat held by former Olympic champion Rex Kewley while a student at Farmington in 1958.
The slim hurdler, who plans to attend Eastern Michigan next fall, hopes to make the U.S. Olympic team by 1968. He will be exposed to national competition in the Golden West Invitational at San Francisco June 19.
Flint Central was paced by Class A with 36 points and Ypsilanti placed third with 23. Defending champion Flint Southwestern placed fifth with 21 points.
Flint Central was paced by Herb Washington who won the 100-yard dash in 10.1 and took the 220-yard dash in 22.4.
His teammate, Freels Bacon, set a high jump record of six feet, eight inches, cracking the old mark of 6-7 3/4 set by Ken Dyer of Ann Arbor in 1964.
Ken House of Detroit Finney won the two-mile run in 9:25.3—a record for the new event.
Battle Creek Central's 880-relay team was clocked in 1:28.8, bumping Kalamazoo Central's old mark of 1:29.5, set in 1963.

Final Tourney For Campbell

FORMBY, England (AP) — "If you think I came 3,000 miles to miss a 4-foot putt, you're wrong."
The speaker was big Bill Campbell, who led the 37-strong American challenge for the British Amateur Golf Championship today.
"This is probably going to be my last British Amateur and it's one I want to win," said big Bill. "I'm in a competitive mood—that means I'm kind of quiet. But if you're playing well the shots work out for themselves."
Campbell, 44-year-old campaigner from Huntingdon, W. Va., won all his four matches in the Walker Cup which saw a 13-7 American triumph over the British Isles at Sandwich a week ago.
Campbell played better golf at Sandwich than he's ever played. He has won the U.S. Amateur. He's captained the U.S. Walker Cup team—way back in 1955.

French Tennis Tournay Bugged

PARIS (AP) — The French International Tennis Tournament was bugged down in a major traffic jam today and tourney officials were scrambling around in search of auxiliary courts in hopes of getting the rain-disrupted event back on schedule.
A third day of rain within a week threw the schedule completely off course Sunday. Only three previously-postponed men's doubles matches and eight women's singles were completed.
Rosemary Casals of San Francisco advanced to the third round, but two other U.S. women, Kathy Blake and Tora Fretz, were eliminated.
With most of the best American men competing with the Davis Cup team in Mexico, only a handful of U.S. men entered and all have been eliminated.
The 1967 USGA amateur golf championship will be played Aug. 26-31 at the Scioto Country Club in Columbus, Ohio.
Jack Ferraro of Rochester, N. Y., captains Dartmouth's golf team.

American Racers Favored In Memorial Day Feature

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind. (AP) — American auto race drivers, who have watched a Scotsman and an Englishman wheel into Victory Lane for two straight years, have sound hopes of ending the trend Tuesday in the 51st 500-mile Memorial Day race.
Parnelli Jones of Torrance, Calif., a former winner, was virtually conceded his second victory in the event if his revolutionary STP-Pratt & Whitney turbine car holds together for the distance.
Italian-born but thoroughly Americanized Mario Andretti, Nazareth, Pa., will start from the No. 1 position and carry No. 1 on his car. He earned the numerals separately, the pole start with a record 168.982 qualifying speed in a Brawner Hawk Ford, the one painted on his car by winning the U.S. Auto Club championship last year.
The front row will be rounded out by international racer Dan Gurney of Costa Mesa, Calif., one of the game's smoothest drivers, in one of his own Eagle Fords, and Gordon Johncock of Hastings, Mich., who finished third last year, in a Gerhardt-Ford.
Although Jones' qualifying speed earned him only a second-row start, he had been babying an ailing gear box on the 10-mile trial run. After a new transmission was built by an Indianapolis firm specializing in helicopter gears, Jones showed in practice he could pass anybody in the field.
Jones, 1963 winner, will share the second row with A. J. Foyt Jr. of Houston, Tex., the 1962 and 1964 winner, and Foyt's teammate, former motorcycle champion Joe Leonard, San Jose, Calif., in Foyt-designed Coyote Fords.

The third row lineup will be Lloyd Ruby, Wichita Falls, Tex., who was winning the '66 race until his engine failed, and brothers Bobby and Al Unser of a famous Albuquerque, N.M., racing family.
Mechanical troubles and late qualifications left the five foreign starters far back in the field. Jim Clark of Scotland, 1965 winner, will start 16th; Denis Hulme of New Zealand 24th; Jackie Stewart of Scotland 29th; 1966 winner Graham Hill of England 31st, and Jochen Rindt of Austria 32nd.
Al Miller of Roseville, Mich., oldest starter at 43, will take off beside Rindt, youngest at 25 but No. 2 ranking Grand Prix driver last year. Hulme currently leads this world road racing circuit. The drivers were assembled at noon today for their final instructions and review of the rules, with emphasis on a clean start. Sixteen cars tangled last year only yards beyond the starting line, eliminating 11 but causing no serious injuries.

The "500 Festival," a series of race-connected events ranging from a gin runny tournament to the Governor's Ball, reached its climax Sunday with the nationally televised Festival parade. The parade drew almost as many spectators as the race, in which upwards of 300,000 spectators will be packed into the 433-acre Speedway.
Thousands already were moving into the Speedway's special grass overnight parking lot over the weekend, carrying vast quantities of food and beer.

Veteran Driver Wins Top Event For Stock Cars

CHARLOTTE, N.C. (AP) — Jim Paschal, a crew-cut, slightly greying bachelor, figures chicken ranching may be better as a long-term investment than auto racing. But right now he plans to continue doing both.
The 41-year-old veteran of 20 years in the Southern stock car bull rings, picked up $29,035 Sunday in winning the second richest and longest of all stock car races, the World 600 at Sunbank Charlotte Motor Speedway.
It was the second time Paschal had won the event, considered by drivers to be the biggest test of endurance of all the South's big speedway events. He won here in 1964 and invested his share of that purse in a chicken ranch near High Point.
Paschal said after Sunday's victory that his winnings would be used to buy more chickens. Paschal as trim physically as the day he began racing in 1947, almost wrecked his independently backed Plymouth with less than 100 miles to go after leading most of the way.
He lost control in the fourth turn, scraped the concrete wall two or three times, and damaged his steering gear.
After that, he had to manhandle the car through the speedway's sharply banked turns, but managed to beat Ford's David Pearson across the finish line by more than 12 seconds. Paschal held a three-lap lead over the field when his brush with disaster occurred.
Pearson picked up $12,530 of the $130,000 purse for his second place finish. Bobby Allison was third in a Dodge winning $7,670. Richard Petty was fourth in a Plymouth, winning $4,875, and Tiny Lund finished fifth to earn $4,400.

Orphans First In Keg Tournay

ROCHESTER, N.Y. (AP) — The 47th annual women's International Bowling Congress Tournament closed a 48-day stand Sunday with a complete new set of champions.

The Orphans of Los Angeles, with 2970, walked off with the $1,500 first prize in the Division I teams category, while English's Windy Hill of Ithaca, N.Y., with 2569, won the same amount for victory in Division II.

Elaine Liburdi of Union City, N.J., and Joan Oleske of Lyndhurst, N.J., shared $900 for taking the Division I doubles with a 1252 score. In Division III, the winners were Ann Schauer and Julia Nungesser of College Point, N.Y., with 1108.

Among the Division I singles competitors, Gloria Paeth of Port Huron, Mich., emerged with the top money of $300 on her three-game 632 performance. Lillian Royer of Woodlyn, Pa., at 613, won the top spot in the lower-average division.

Carol Miller of Milwaukee, with an 1862 performance, was tops in the Division I all-events category and earned $300. Her Division II counterpart was Pat Beasley of Lansing, Mich., who rolled 1653.

No champion from last year's tourney retained her crown. A record total of 6,086 teams competed in the marathon tourney, which was staged at two lanes here beginning April 13. The competition in 1966 at New Orleans drew 5,078 teams.

Newspaper Want Ads are a big sell! One billion, twenty-one million was spent on classified ads last year... more than for all magazine advertising combined and more than 300 million more than radio advertising.

Studies Hamper Top Track Stars

VILLANOVA, Pa. (AP) — Such unlikely ailments as pollen allergy and tonsillitis proved to be no handicap to the various participants in the ICAA track championships here this weekend, but the business of going to school turned out to be a problem.
Villanova, heavily favored to win the championship, ended up winning by 16 points Saturday when Maryland's attack had to proceed without the help of Ed Marks, who remained in College Park studying for examinations.
And Yale, which led the 67 schools in the meet by taking three first places, lost a chance for a fourth when Cal Hill, best long jumper in the association this spring, stayed back in New Haven for an exam that couldn't be postponed.
Jack Endrikat, Princeton's fine half-miler also stayed home to study.
Dave Patrick, finally rid of the colds that hampered his spring, led Villanova to victory with a meet record of 4:04.9 in the mile. Patrick's tonsils, one of the causes of his physical problems, will come out when the summer season is over.
Ricardo Urbina of Georgetown resorted to sunglasses while running the 800, which he won for the second year in a row in 1:49.1.
"The dark glasses aren't for effect," Urbina said. "I'm allergic to pollen and my eyes are so bloodshot I can hardly see."
Villanova finished with 37 points to 21 for Maryland, 20 for surprising Rutgers and 18 for Army. Yale finished with 15, followed by Georgetown with 14 and Navy and Penn State with 13.

Lasagna Brings Out Best In Atlanta's Joe Torre

By The Associated Press
Ah, the wonders of a properly prepared lasagna.
Popeye relies on spinach but lasagna does the trick for Joe Torre, Atlanta's Brooklyn-born catcher.
Once Torre gets a taste of the real thing, he's tough to contain. He went on a six-for-seven tear Sunday that helped the Braves gain a split of their doubleheader against New York. The Mets took the opener 6-3 before Atlanta captured the nightcap 7-3.
There were only three other games played in the National League. Pittsburgh edged Cincinnati 3-2. St. Louis slugged Philadelphia 8-3, and San Francisco dropped Los Angeles 4-1. Houston's game at Chicago was rained out.
In the American League, New York shut out Cleveland 5-0, Boston shaded Baltimore 4-3, Detroit defeated Washington 3-1, California blanked Chicago 5-0 and Minnesota split a doubleheader with Kansas City, winning 4-3 before losing 7-2.
They may be experts on hominy grits and other Southern dishes in Atlanta, but when it comes to lasagna, Torre knows there's no place like home.
"Yes," he admitted, "my mother made some lasagna last night. I had a couple of the boys over and we had a good time."
The lasagna didn't do much for his slumping teammates, who had managed just five runs in four games before Sunday, but it certainly straightened out Torre.
He smashed a bases-empty home run and two other hits in the first game but couldn't overcome four hits and five runs batted in by Tommy Davis as the Mets won their third straight.
Torre drove in three runs with three more hits in the nightcap and Denny Lemaster's five-hit performance halted a four-game Atlanta slide.
Davis had two home runs and finished with six hits and seven RBI for the day. Home cooking wasn't the answer though. His mother lives in Los Angeles.
Torre's tear lifted his batting average 28 points to .312. Davis' average zoomed 26 points to .333.
Roberto Clemente, who leads the National League with a .385 average, drove in two of Pittsburgh's three runs against the Reds. He singled Maury Wills home in the first inning and then clouted his 10th home run of the season in the sixth.
Donn Clendenon's eighth inning sacrifice fly drove in Willie Stargell with the winning run after Cincinnati had tied it on single runs in the seventh and eighth.
Lou Brock smacked three hits, stole two bases and scored twice, leading St. Louis past

Philadelphia. Brock, who has hit safely in 11 straight games, lifted his stolen base total to 21—tops in the majors.

Steve Carlton allowed seven hits and won his third game in four decisions.

Gaylord Perry hurled a six-hitter and the Giants pushed across three runs in the first inning against Claude Osteen, beating the Dodgers.

Jim Davenport and Hal Lanier delivered key doubles in the Giants' first and Willie Mays' run-scoring single produced San Francisco's final run in the fourth. Willie Davis' two-out single in the eighth deprived Perry of the shutout.

Detroit Cougars Win First Game In Soccer Loop

LYNN, Mass. (AP) — John Colrain's goal with less than six minutes remaining boosted the Detroit Cougars into a 1-1 tie with the Boston Shamrock Rovers Sunday night before a crowd of 7,300 in a United Soccer Association opener that ended in a melee.
Meanwhile, bolstered by huge crowds at Houston's Astrodome and in New York, the United Soccer Association drew a total of 87,631 fans to six games last weekend as the league opened play for the season.
The biggest crowd, 34,965, attended a Saturday game in the Astrodome, with Houston and Los Angeles playing to a 1-1 tie. A turnout of 21,871 was on hand in New York to watch the New York Skyliners, represented by Cerro of Uruguay, and Toronto City, represented by the Hibernians of Scotland, also tie 1-1 Sunday.
In other United Soccer Association games Sunday, San Francisco routed Vancouver 6-1, 3:17 at San Francisco, and 5,872 were on hand in Chicago to see Dallas blank Chicago 1-0.
A crowd of 9,403 was on hand for the league opener in Washington Friday night.
In the National Professional League Sunday, Philadelphia crushed Toronto 7-2 at Toronto, Baltimore blanked St. Louis 2-0 at St. Louis and Chicago and Los Angeles tied 1-1 in California.
Colrain took a head pass from Danny Trainor and scored on a hard boot into the upper corner from 30 yards out at 39:45 to cap a Detroit comeback.
Boston opened the scoring at 30:00 of the first half when Mickey Leech, a 19-year-old sensation, scored on a 10-yard boot after a neat maneuver.
The game ended in a melee when an apparent goal by Detroit was nullified by an offside penalty in the closing seconds.
Jim Harter of Lemon Grove, Calif., will captain Army's wrestling team next season.

World Field Set For Cage Action

MONTEVIDEO (AP) — The United States, the Soviet Union, Yugoslavia and Argentina assured themselves berths in the World Basketball Championship finals after winning two games each in qualifying rounds.
The United States gained its second straight victory defeating Mexico 76-65 in Mercedes Sunday night. The Americans beat the Italians 67-56 Saturday night.
Yugoslavia, the defending world champion, defeated Italy 71-62 Sunday night and downed Mexico 86-73 Saturday night, both games also in Mercedes.
The Russians, playing in the Montevideo round, first beat Peru 95-56 Saturday night, and followed up defeating Japan 46-26 Sunday night.
Argentina managed victories over Peru 60-43 Saturday night and Peru 73-65 Sunday night, both games also in Montevideo.
Each of them still has one more qualifying round game to play, but this will not change the fate of Japan, Peru, Italy and Mexico, who are destined for the consolation round in Cordoba City, Argentina.
The finals have been scheduled for Montevideo, June 1-14.

Ishpeming Is First Escanaba Runnerup In Class A-B Meet

By RAY CRANDALL (Press Sports Editor)

MARQUETTE—The Ishpeming Hematites, counting heavily on a quartet of rugged middle distance runners, captured the school's first Upper Peninsula Class A-B track championship in history here Saturday.

Ishpeming scored 47 points to outdistance the field of 15 schools with Escanaba placing second with 35½ points to Calumet's 34 1/6.

Boosting Ishpeming a long way toward the team title were two crack half milers, Al Morrison and Bill Parkkonen. They gave the Hematites 10 points by winning both sections of their specialty. Gordon Leppanen churned home first in the mile and Ron Parkkonen was third in the event to provide eight more points. A victory in the mile relay gave Ishpeming five points in still another distance specialty.

Bill Zhulkie provided Ishpeming's remaining first place finish in the low hurdles. The versatile Hematite senior fired out of the blocks for a big early lead on Escanaba's Jim Boyle who cut his deficit to inches in a near photo finish.

Boyle put his name in the Class A-B record book in the high hurdles, stepping the sticks in 15.3 in the morning preliminaries and repeating the performance in the afternoon finals.

The existing record was 15.4, first set by Gene Pearson of Marquette in 1962 and tied by Brad Sauldier of Sault Ste. Marie last spring.

Boyle was one of two double winners in the meet. The Eskymo senior won the long jump with a leap of 20 feet 5½ inches.

Al Eckhart, Calumet's sensational sprinter, smashed the 100 yard dash record of 10.2 set in 1956 by Tim Zhulkie of Ishpeming, with a blazing 10.05 performance. He was chased to the tape by teammates George Okarinen whose time was listed at 10.06.

Eckhart also breezed home first in the 220 yard dash, winning in the fast time of 22.1, a tenth of a second off another Zhulkie record.

The only other record established in the meet was Gordon Pekuri's 10.20 in the new two mile event. The Menominee sophomore barely beat teammate Dave H. and was pressed by Escanaba's Bob Svenson who was timed in 10:24.5 for third place.

Paul Miller of Escanaba successfully defended his U.P. high jump championship, reaching 5 feet 9 inches under adverse conditions. Miller also came through with a third in the 100 yard dash and a fourth in the shot put.

Other Eskymo point producers were Dennis Johnson, in the shot, Rick Anderson, in the 330, Tom Boyle in the low hurdles, Mike O'Leary in the high jump and the 880 relay team.

The Holy Name Crusaders captured fourth place in the team totals with 17 points.

Bob Brisco was runnerup in the shot put and pole vault, Jim Grook was third in the 220 and fifth in the 100. Dave Cannon zoomed home third in the low hurdles and the Crusaders grabbed fourth in the 880 relay.

Roy DeWitt led the shot putters with a heave of 48 feet, 6½ inches to top Brisco by half an inch. Other Braves earning points were Steve Schram in the 330, Steve Nelson in the high hurdles and the mile relay team.

Summary:

Norm Cash Benched

Smith Rocks Tigers With Player Sweep

DETROIT (AP) — Manager Mayo Smith has rocked the Detroit Tigers with his first major shake-up. He benched veteran Norm Cash, released pitcher Johnny Klippstein and optioned Jake Wood and George Korince.

In the same big sweep, the Tigers recalled pitcher Pat Dobson from their Toledo farm club in the International League Sunday and purchased two other Mud Hens players — catcher Bill Heath and pitcher Mike Marshall.

Smith told Wood, an infielder, and relief pitcher Korince they are being optioned to Toledo.

He gave the players the word immediately after Detroit's 3-1 victory over the Washington Senators. Smith told the stunned players of the changes as 52,357 fans, largest crowd in the major leagues this season, were leaving Tiger Stadium.

Fifth For McLain

In the game, Denny McLain got his fifth victory, with sparkling relief help from Fred Gladding.

Smith said the primary reason for the shakeup was "the need for a third catcher."

"Heath is a pretty good hitter," he said. "With three catchers I can use Bill Freehan at first base once in awhile or have him on the bench to pinch hit if he isn't catching."

The Tigers also have Jim Price as a reserve catcher.

"The other two boys (Marshall and Dobson) — they tell me they've been pitching pretty well down at Toledo," Smith said. "We'll give them a try in relief."

Smith personally told Wood, Korince and Klippstein about the changes after Sunday's game.

"It's the toughest part of a manager's job," he said.

Players Shaken

Klippstein, 39, and a 17-year veteran of the major leagues, took his release philosophically. But Wood was visibly shaken by the announcement.

"I'm shocked," said the little infielder who has spent six years with the Tigers, mostly as a utility man. "I can't believe it."

Wood and Korince were put under 24-hour recall option.

Wood, 29, who has a .253 lifetime batting average, got a double his first time up this year but has gone hitless 19 straight times since then.

Klippstein posted a 5.40 earned run average in 6 2-3 innings of relief.

Klippstein, who has an interest in a sales firm in Chicago, said he was uncertain whether he would try to catch on with another major league team.

"I'll have to think it over for a few days," he said.

Korince, a 21-year-old fastballer, was sent down for more work.

Heath hit .301 with the Houston Astros in the National League last year.

Sain Impressed

Dobson, a 25-year-old right-hander, posted a 4-1 mark and a 1.47 ERA as a starter for the Mud Hens this year.

Marshall, 24, a right-handed relief specialist, impressed pitching coach Johnny Sain in spring training. In 14 2-3 innings with the Mud Hens, all in relief, he had a 2-0 record with a 0.61 ERA.

Smith said he benched Cash because the hustling first baseman, whose hitting has been off, was "pressing too much."

Major reason for the huge attendance Sunday was that the Tigers gave away free Little League-sized bats to youngsters. They gave away 30,000 and issued 100's for 5,200 after running out of them. More than 10,000 fans were turned away when the stadium announced a ticket sell-out.

Smith said he plans to let Price catch one game of the Memorial Day doubleheader against the Chicago White Sox.

The Tigers go into the key twin-bill trailing the Sox, who dropped a 5-0 decision to California Sunday, by one-half game.

Stanley At First

Mickey Stanley played first against Washington. He handled nine chances without error but failed to get a hit in four tries.

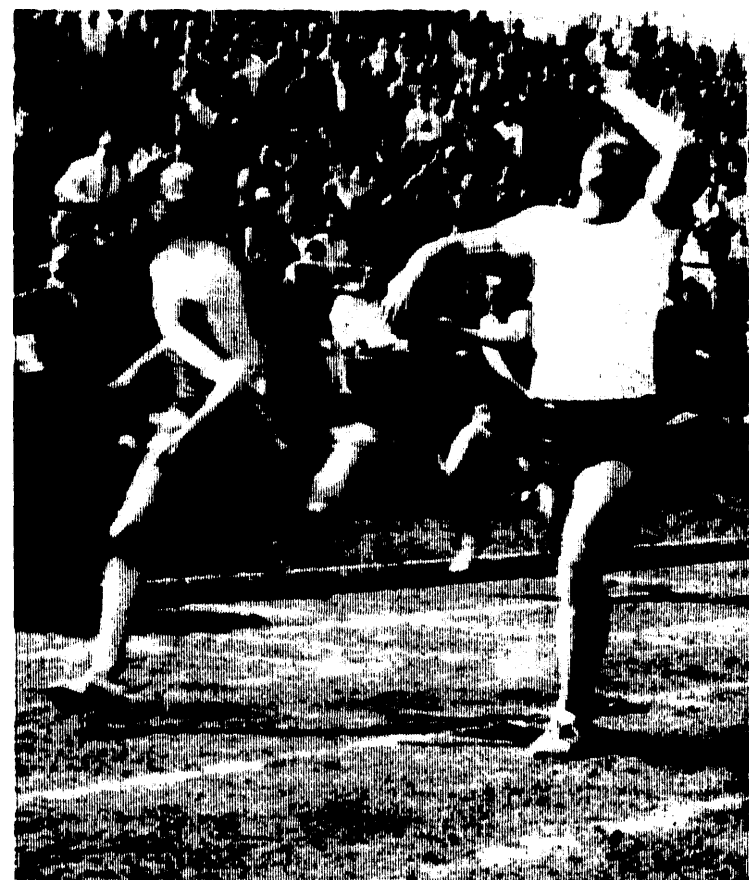

The Tigers lunched four hits and scored all the runs in the sixth inning against lesser Pete Richter. Ray Oyler opened with a single and moved to second on McLain's sacrifice. Don Wert singled, moving the runner to third and Dick McAuliffe's sacrifice fly brought the run home.

At Kaline walked and Willie Horton and Jim Northrup followed with run-scoring singles.

McLain struck out 10 but was lifted for Gladding in the ninth after he gave up a homer to Ed Brinkman and issued successive walks to the next two batters. Gladding got Ken McMullen on an infield groundout to end the game.

Smith said he plans to pitch Earl Wilson and Joe Sparrma against the White Sox Tuesday. Chicago plans to use two left-handers, Tommy John and Gary Peters.

Army's next basketball captain will be Bill Schutsky of Hillsdale, N. J.

L'Anse Class C Track Champ; Wakefield Ace Defeated In Sprints

MARQUETTE—The L'Anse Hornets unveiled their answer to Wakefield's Ray Sibley here Saturday to capture the Upper Peninsula Class C track and field championship.

Karl Funke, fleet footed L'Anse junior, dethroned Sibley as the Peninsula's premier Class C dashman. The L'Anse speed merchant bested Sibley in both the short sprints, setting new records of 10.2 in the 100 and 22.8 in the 220. Sibley, who had won both the events in his sophomore and junior years, finished second in both Saturday. Sibley also slipped from the No. 1 spot in the long jump this year, finishing fifth with a leap of 19 feet.

The Hornets scored 40 points to nip Wakefield by two in the team standings. L'Anse captured only two other firsts in the meet, winning the mile relay and getting a 440 victory from Bob Fredrikson.

Wakefield rewrote the record in the 880 relay, turning in a 1:35.6 clocking.

Stephenson's Ron Stromgren established a record in the new two mile run, winning in 10 minutes 36 seconds.

Hancock's Dick Salani bettered the Class C record in the high hurdles with a 15.45 clocking in the preliminaries and matched the record with a 20.7 time in the highs in the afternoon finals. Russ Brittain of Crystal Falls tied the 440 record of 53.2 seconds.

Insurance: Don Sothoron, Randall Robinette, Tim Flynn, Dave Schwalbach, Don LeMire and Jeff Sheedlo.

Kiwanis: John Olinger, Rich- ards, Mike Winters, Mark Larche, Steve Cerasoli and Jay Bradshaw.

The following were placed on the reserve list which will be used by managers to replace injured players and boys who

Lutri Honored As Top Lineman In Squad Clash

MARQUETTE—Jerry Lutri of Stephenson, a 6 foot 5 inch, 235 pound battering ram at offensive tackle, was honored as the outstanding lineman in the Northern Michigan Univer- sity's annual spring intrasquad game played before a packed stadium here Saturday night.

Lutri, a junior-to-be, helped lead the veteran Greens to a 42-6 victory over the whites.

Another former Upper Pen- insula prep standout, Jim Lind- strom of Iron Mountain, was honored as the outstanding back in the game.

The shifty halfback scored four touchdowns for the Greens while piling up 134 yards in 21 carries.

Lindstrom got his first TD early in the contest on an eight yard pass from new quarter- back Lloyd Carr, then wheeled for three second half touch- downs on runs of 3, 18 and 37 yards. Lindstrom, who will be a junior next fall, hauled in five passes for 67 yards.

Fullback Kent Lefebvre scored the other touchdowns for the Greens on one yard plung- es. Iranian soccer kicker Abdo- lah Hashemi kicked all six PATs.

The White team scored in the second period when quar- terback Clair Lambert hit end Ted Rose, a converted basket- ball star, with a 43 yard payoff pass.

Carr connected on 12 of 26 passes for 159 yards while

Pickford Captures 16th Straight Class D Crown

MARQUETTE—The Pickford Panthers put on another of their awesome displays of track and field power here Saturday to extend their Upper Penin- sula Class D victory string to 16 years.

Coach Web Morrison's peer- less Panthers piled up 70 points, more than their next three closest challengers, by capturing eight firsts and earning points in six other events.

Following Pickford in the team standings were Rapid River and Ironwood St. Am- brose, tied for second with a mere 21 points apiece. DeTour was third with 19.

Eric Rike of Pickford was the only double winner for the day, copping the high and low hurdles. Other Panther win- ners were Frank Stec in the pole vault, Dale Couillard in the 220 dash, Dave Lamb in the 880 and Bert Jeske in the 440. The Panthers also copped both relay races.

Rapid River's Dan Safford took a first in the long jump at 19 feet 7½ inches.

Felix Sackech of Bark River topped the field in the high jump with a leap of 5 feet 5 inches.

The only record established in the meet came in the new two mile event, won by Eben's Lief Benson in 10 minutes 31.5 seconds.

SOME OF THE 25 rearing tanks newly installed in Thompson Fish Hatchery for the musky rearing program are pictured. After muskies hatch in May they will remain in these tanks until they reach about two inches in length, after which they will be placed in new outdoor rearing ponds and held until they are ready for planting in September or October, by which time they will be about six inches long. Roy Babbitt, in charge of tank installation, is pictured above.

Thompson Hatchery Builds Nursery For Muskellunge

By KENNETH S. LOWE
Of Panax Newspapers

A new unit being built at the Thompson Fish Hatchery near Manistique will be used to produce muskellunge, a fish that is known for its savage fighting qualities.

Although ferocious as adults, muskies are delicate youngsters, and the musky rearing facility at Thompson will be geared to catering to the sensitive nature of newly hatched muskellunge.

Principal difference between the musky unit and the existing trout rearing facilities will be the precise temperature control that will be made possible.

Henry Vondett, Marquette, regional fish biologist for the Michigan Conservation Department, said a sudden temperature drop could wipe out the entire musky population in a hatchery if it hit at the wrong time.

But at the new Thompson unit, water temperature will be thermostatically controlled at 52 degrees—just right for the minute muskies.

Two Projects
Another feature of the new unit will make it possible to almost spoon feed the infant muskies.

Construction of the new unit is being undertaken in two segments.

The first segment involves installation of 25 fingerling rearing tanks. This required a 30 by 60-foot addition to the main hatchery building. This segment of the project now is about 90 per cent complete.

The second segment—construction of five fish rearing ponds and two food (plankton) producing ponds—is to start this summer.

The musky rearing facility—the first in the Upper Peninsula—should be in full production next spring, Vondett said. It will produce about 50,000 fingerlings (six or more inches long) each year.

Fish For U.P.
These will be planted primarily in Upper Peninsula waters that now support musky populations or in lakes above the Straits where the conservation department plans to introduce muskies and manage the water for this type of fishing.

produce muskies and manage the water for this type of fishing.

The Thompson muskies will be kept indoors until they are about two inches in length. Plankton will be moved from one of the outdoor culture ponds into the rearing tanks for feed.

Water in the rearing tanks will come from Williams Creek (or from a well that will be used as an emergency source) and will be warmed in large gas hot water heaters to 52 degrees before entering the tanks. After it has circulated through the indoor system, the water will be discharged into the plankton ponds and then into Thompson Creek, which flows into Lake Michigan.

Air Trout Program
After muskies reach two inches in length, they stop feeding on plankton and begin feeding on fish fry. Suckers will be hatched at the Thompson hatchery to provide musky food at this stage.

Until last year, when coho salmon and Kamloops trout were reared there, the Thompson hatchery was used only for brook, brown and rainbow trout. It will continue to serve as a trout hatchery after the musky unit is completed.

In fact, Vondett believes the hatchery will be a better trout producer then because 52-degree water will be employed instead of the present 45-degree hatchery water. Trout should eat better and consequently grow faster in the warmer water, Vondett said.

"I think this arrangement not only will give us a better musky program in the Upper Peninsula, but also will give our trout program a big boost," he stated.

Pollution Pressure In U.P. Will Grow

Michigan's Water Resources Commission heard testimony from more than a dozen persons in Marquette Thursday in its public hearing on proposed interstate water quality standards for Lake Superior and the Menominee-Montreal River basins.

Everyone agreed that polluted water should be cleaned up and that uncontaminated water should be protected, but just how hard proposed rules should bite was a matter of serious question.

The seven-man commission heard testimony at Northern Michigan University—the last of four hearings held throughout the state.

The hearing was held in compliance with the Federal Water Quality Act of 1965, which gives the states until this June 30 to hold hearings prior to setting up water quality standards for interstate waters.

Outspoken supporter of high quality water standards was A. R. Gleason, instructor of biology at Lake Superior State College, Sault Ste. Marie, who called Lake Superior "the last major hope of preserving a large body of fresh water in its original state in the United States."

Gleason noted that quality of water in most parts of the lake were well above minimum standards to be recommended for the upcoming legislation. He said he hoped a separate and higher set of standards be applied to Lake Superior than to the other Great Lakes and connecting streams where lower water quality might be acceptable.

Fish and other forms of aquatic life need high quality water, Charles D. Harris, Lansing, deputy director of the Department of Conservation's Resources Management Division testified.

He said he didn't think proposed minimum oxygen levels were unrealistic.

"The prime attractions of the Hiawatha and Ottawa National Forests are their lakes and streams," said Richard Guth, Ironwood, resource staff assistant, U. S. Forest Service. He stated the Forest Service is vitally interested in preserving high water standards.

"Greatest Resource"

E. M. Laitala, Hancock, member of the Conservation Commission, pointed out that disagreement between parties didn't mean that progress couldn't be made toward better water pollution control. "Pure water is one of Upper Michigan's greatest resources—for recreation and industry."

Wisconsin is moving along much the same lines as Michigan in its pollution control program, J. L. Lissack, Green Bay, Wisconsin State Department of Resource Development, told the commission.

All of the spokesmen for industry said they were in agreement with national and state goals for water pollution control, but most of them thought proposed regulations went a little too far.

William R. Beerman, manager of Kimberly-Clark Corp.'s Niagara, Wis., paper mill, said the standards should be "realistic, not idealistic."

Mining Industry

Attorney James P. Clancey, Ishpeming, representing the Michigan Iron Mining Association, said his group questioned whether "objectionable" matter in water was really "injurious." He noted that reddish iron particles from ore beneficiation plants sometimes discolor river water but held that they were not necessarily harmful.

Spokesmen for other industries said problems would have to be worked out in establishing categories of water use, minimum oxygen content, thermal (hot water) discharges, and mineral-chemical-organic contents of discharges. They pointed out that the overall economic-social-recreational aspects of pollution control would have to be considered "for the greatest public good."

the Lake Superior, Menominee-Montreal River basins is that population pressures are slight, and industrial use relatively light.

It was stressed by water resources people that industry will look more and more to the Lake Superior area in the future to supply the vast amounts of clean water it will need. Now is the time to enforce strict water control measures, they said.
